

Client Service Charter

The Cairns Regional Domestic Violence Service's Client Service Charter provides an outline of the level of service individuals can expect when accessing our services.

Our Vision

Making a difference - prioritising safety and bringing domestic and family violence to an end.

Our Values

The organisational values governing Cairns Regional Domestic Violence Service Inc include:

- Commitment to the safety and well being of staff and clients, including children and young people, who use our services, acknowledging that safety and security for women and children experiencing or escaping domestic violence and/or family violence is paramount;
- Commitment to the values of access, equity, empowerment, social justice, fairness, accountability, openness and transparency when dealing with clients, staff and stakeholders;
- Recognition and acknowledgement that services must be appropriate to the social, linguistic and cultural values of all individuals and families;
- Acknowledgement that perpetrators of domestic violence and/or family violence are responsible for their actions. The notion of blame being attributed to the victim is not acceptable;
- Clients and stakeholders will be treated with respect and understanding at all times.
- Promotion of the highest standards of ethical behaviour and professional integrity amongst CRDVS staff and management;
- Commitment as a learning organisation, promoting knowledge management and a continuous learning culture to improve what we do.

What you can expect from us

Quality responsive services

We will attend to you as quickly as we are able. This means that:

- we will answer the phone promptly;
- if the person you talk to cannot answer your enquiry, they will put you in touch with someone who can give you an appropriate response;
- we will respond to all your letters and emails;
- if you lodge a complaint, we will work with you to understand and address your concerns. Please see the contact details below should you wish to lodge a complaint.

Courtesy and respect

We will treat you with courtesy and respect.

Fair and equal services

Our staff are aware of the cultural diversity of our communities. We will provide services in a fair and equitable way.

Because we want everyone to be treated fairly, we will ensure we have premises and facilities that you can access easily.

Accountability

You will receive up-to-date and accurate information. Whenever possible, our staff will explain the decision-making processes as they impact on you. If we cannot assist you, we will do our best to refer you to someone who can.

Confidentiality

We will treat your personal and confidential information with sensitivity. We will collect, store and use your personal and confidential information responsibly. Please note that in some circumstances, we may be required to release your information without your consent.

How you can assist us

Tell us your needs

Help us to understand your needs so that we can give you the best possible service. You can do this by talking with our staff and participating in the consultation activities we conduct. We will listen to you.

Tell us if things change for you

Please tell us if there are changes we should know about, for example, changes to your contact details.

Tell us how we are doing

If something happens that you like or do not like about our service, please let us know. We want to ensure your issues are heard. You can tell us in a way that suits you:

- Talk to a staff member or manager;
- Contact us online at office@dvcairns.org;
